

Covenant of Right Relations

The purpose of this covenant is to strengthen the bonds of trust and loyalty in our community. In addition, we make this covenant to help focus our efforts.

As the members of Harmony Unitarian Universalist Church, we covenant together to:

- . Pledge our time, talent and financial support to the best of our ability. We will honor the commitments we make to individuals and to the church as a whole.
- . Be respectful and friendly to members and visitors.
- . Avoid gossip and speak directly to other members when we have concerns in order to resolve conflicts in a positive way.
- . Strive to live by the Seven Principles of Unitarian Universalism:
 - . The inherent worth and dignity of every person;
 - . Justice, equity and compassion in human relations;
 - . Acceptance of one another and encouragement to spiritual growth in our congregations;
 - . A free and responsible search for truth and meaning;
 - . The right of conscience and the use of the democratic process within our congregations and in society at large;
 - . The goal of world community with peace, liberty, and justice for all;
 - . Respect for the interdependent web of all existence of which we are a part.

Our Mission

Harmony Unitarian Universalist Church is an open and welcoming religious community, embarking together on an intellectual and spiritual search for truth and meaning. We walk together with compassion for our Earth, our families, our communities and each other, sharing the delight of our joys and the burden of our sorrows, and promoting peace and justice.
